

The 2012 CRITICAL ISSUES SEMINAR

Presented by the American Society of Civil Engineers Philadelphia Younger Members Forum

The Critical Issues Seminar is an annual panelist-led discussion focusing on a key issue facing the engineering community in and around the Philadelphia region.

This Year's Topic: Bridging the Generation Gap

- Discuss how different Generations have gotten to different points in their careers -
- Perceptions and Misperceptions of Different Generations -
- Resolving Intergenerational Issues -

Tuesday, May 1st, 2012

Our distinguished panelists are:

- Chris Crockett, Ph.D., P.E. - Deputy Commissioner – Planning & Environmental Services, Philadelphia Water Department (PWD)
- Edward M. D'Alba, P.E. - President and CEO, Urban Engineers
- Cathy Farrell, P.E. - Project Engineer, Michael Baker Jr. Inc.
- Allison Sedor, E.I.T. - Associate Engineer, Pennoni Associates Inc.
- Spencer Stevens - Student, Villanova University

Location: Elephant & Castle Pub & Restaurant
(visit <http://www.elephantcastle.com/philadelphia> for directions)
1800 Market St. Philadelphia, PA 19103

Time: 5-7:30pm

Cost: Attendance is FREE! Appetizers will be provided free of charge.

Contact: To RSVP, visit <http://www.ymfphilly.org/rsvp.htm>
Questions/Concerns? Contact Lindsey Glavin at (610)631-8151

Please RSVP by Friday, April 27, 2012

Sponsored By:

